Are you eager to make a difference for local young children?

At our Cylch Meithrin every child has the opportunity to play, learn and grow in Welsh.

We give children and their families a host of educational and fun experiences through the medium of Welsh, and all the volunteers who support the Cylch as members of the Committee are a massive help to us in achieving this.

Want to make a Difference in your Community?

Local Cylchoedd Meithrin (Welsh-medium playgroups) are looking for volunteers! You don't have to be able to speak Welsh to get involved.

Why volunteer?

- Make a difference to others in your community
- Support the Welsh language and Welsh-medium education
- Enhance your CV – volunteering can lead to employment or a change of career
- Develop new skills and knowledge
- Use your professional skills to benefit others
- Be part of a team
- Develop your self confidence

There are over 450 Cylchoedd Meithrin throughout Wales and they are run by local voluntary management committees. Training and support for volunteers is provided by Mudiad Meithrin – the umbrella organisation for Cylchoedd Meithrin (Welsh-medium playgroups). Cylchoedd Meithrin provide Welsh-medium education and childcare for children aged 2-5years old.
